

Mark Holman

President, Strategy, Investments & Marketing

Mark Holman is the President, Strategy, Investments & Marketing at Flex (NASDAQ: FLEX).

Flex is the Sketch-to-Scale[®] solutions provider that designs and builds intelligent products for a connected world. With approximately 200,000 professionals across 30 countries, Flex provides innovative design, engineering, manufacturing, real-time supply chain insight, and logistics services to companies of all sizes in various industries and end-markets.

Mr. Holman brings over 25 years of expertise in the Silicon Valley to drive fundamental change and opportunity across Flex's business portfolio. His responsibilities include leading corporate and business strategy, global marketing & sustainability, market research, strategic investments, and partnerships, as well as venture investing.

Prior to joining Flex, Mr. Holman held numerous leadership roles in the technology industry. As a key member of the executive team at Solectron, he led the strategy, marketing, M&A and integration activities, as well as P&L management for the largest customer. Following this role, he served as the founding CEO of E2open, a SaaS supply chain software company and SVP Operations for Arena Solutions, a SaaS PLM company.

In addition to operating roles, Mr. Holman spent over a decade in leading consulting firms (Booz, PRTM/PwC, and A.T. Kearney) building practices in technology and Private Equity sectors, helping clients with investment, strategy and operational challenges. His clients ranged from emerging firms in nascent industries to leading firms in Private Equity and global business.

He is a BSEE graduate of Kettering University and received an MBA with High Distinction from The University of Michigan's Ross School of Business.
